boy you get me so high I just want a taste only want to two things please oh its just you and you tell me if you love me baby because I do I do please oh you're my paradise without you I'm paralyzed falling falling falling fall for you all this all this all this know its true there's a lump in my mouth and I can't get it out what do you want from me baby please just tell me how you don't even realize it oh baby you're heaven sent I'm sick in the head and you're my only medicine

I see you in my dreams
I see you in my nightmares
I see you when I close my eyes it's like you're right there
